

A large rectangle is divided into four equal quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal black line. The top-left quadrant is blue and contains the white number '1'. The top-right quadrant is green and contains the white number '2'. The bottom-left quadrant is red and contains the white number '3'. The bottom-right quadrant is yellow and contains the white number '4'.

1

2

3

4